OAKLAND COUNCIL TO INVESTIGATE CHARGE OF CITY HALL GRAFT

THREATS SAID TO HAVE BEEN USED IN FORCING SUB-CONTRACTORS TO PAY OR LOSE BUSINESS

Abruptly throwing a bombshell that gave forth an odor of emanation of "garbage graft," linking E. P. Mayer, president of the Contra Costa Hog Company, Inc., with the alleged payment of $20,000 for "certain expenses" contingent upon his obtaining the exclusive contract for the collection of swill in the city of Oakland, Commissioner of Public Health and Safety C. C. Young yesterday demanded that the Oakland City council conduct a probe into the circumstances of the contract.

FIVE CHARGES MADE

- 1—That $20,000 was expended at the Oakland City Hall to secure the wet-garbage contract recently awarded to E. P. Mayer of the Contra Costa Hog Company.
- 2—That Harry C. Smith and Ernest J. Engler, discharged city employees, approached Mayer with an offer to get him the contract.
- 3—That one garbage collector paid Mayer $6,600 for a share in the contract.
- 4—That Mayer demanded $6,600 from another collector, who refused, upon advice of counsel, to pay it.
- 5—That Mayer explained to these collectors that $6,600 was approximately one-third the expense he had incurred in securing the contract from the city.

RANCH IN RICHMOND

QUIZ THIS MORNING

A resolution introduced by Young was adopted, and the proprietors of five garbage companies will this morning testify as to what they know of the agreements surrounding the case. Young started the council with a letter stating that he had an affidavit to show that Mayer had resold a portion of the garbage franchise to Peter Bandoni of the Bay Shore Stock Company for $6,600. This sum was not in payment for garbage, but was paid "in order that he might participate in the collection of wet garbage in Oakland." Young told the council.

"CERTAIN EXPENSES"

"Furthermore, I was told that the $6,600 paid by Mr. Bandoni to Mr. E. P. Mayer was, not in the nature of a bond or an advance payment for wet garbage, but, according to the statement of Mr. Bandoni, was to pay one-third of certain expenses which had been incurred by Mr. Mayer to secure the garbage contract from the city of Oakland," Young declared. Following is a portion of Young's letter to the council:

Mufich says in his complaint that he secured an option for fifteen days on the property, dating from November 22, and that the agreed price for the lots was $85,000. ## Opportunities Never Lacking

The old saying that opportunity knocks but once has often been disproved. Opportunities are never lacking for those that are prepared to accept them. Frequently the possession of a little ready money at the right moment may mean the enjoyment of decided advantages. The ownership of a systematically-fostered savings account in the American Trust Company, where funds earn four per cent interest, compounded semi-annually, will be of great assistance to those that wish to succeed.

McRacken's Down Lamoine's Clothiers Trounce Bankers

The McRacken Clothiers last night defeated the LaMoine quintet in a city league basketball game at the Richmond Union High gymnasium by a score of 36 to 31. In the second game of the evening, the Ben Malik Style Experts, in a hurry to get the game over with, trotted all over the McRacken Bankers, 61 to 42.

The first game may be classed as a good contest but the second one was not so good. Several of the Bankers decided early in the game that they were in for a drubbing and got disgusted. But there were others on the team who decided that they would give the Style Experts a run for their money and did so.

McRacken's had no easy time taking down the Druggists. The game started out slowly, gathered speed as each minute passed and when the last quarter came it was a whirlwind.

Pete Daley, Druggist forward was the man with the eagle eye. In the course of the evening's festivities, Daley made eleven points. Eleven ranks with seven in another game.

Joseph H. Baldwin and Charles X. Baldwin, the Lux Twins, shared honors for the McRacken team. Charles brought home 11 points and Joe just eleven.

Schrader started the music with a foul followed by Daley who brought home a point via the same route. Schrader, bowing to the fans, hit the bucket for two points; Saunders followed with a foul. Bowman galloped through with a bucket and also a pose.

C. Baldwin, the great Charles, gathered home a bucket and Joseph G. followed suit. Robert P. Wilson took two turns and made four points and Joe Baldwin, pardon, we mean Joseph G. came through with a foul.

The name of Peter Z. Daley, a forward, figures prominently in the second chunker. Daley started with a bucket, followed by the Frenchman, O'Brien, followed by Schrader with a foul, Daley two buckets, Daley two fouls, J. Baldwin, a bucket, Daley a bucket, O'Brien, a bucket and Joe Baldwin, ditto.

In the third canto Morrison led with a foul and C. Baldwin countered with a bucket, followed by another one. Morrison then shot back a strong right for two points and J. Baldwin countered with a bucket. O'Brien took a hand with a bucket and J. Baldwin countered with a bucket, followed by C. Baldwin.

Edward, (or is it EDWIN) started the last inning with a double to left; O'Brien doubled to right and Panning singled; Wilson doubled, tying the score; Panning then doubled, Theiste homed J. Baldwin doubled, C. Baldwin doubled and O'Brien's single broke up the game.

Lack of space and a general laziness forbids a score by score report of the last game.

Gilbert P. Gadberry, the boy with the auburn locks and the Pepsodent smile figures with twenty-one points. Mr. Gadberry's eyes were working perfectly and so was his basket hand. As each point was made, Gilbert would turn to the raving fans and bow with a look as much as to say: "You ain't seen nothin' yet... stick around gang!"

Peters, Joshua D., was Gad's running mate. Mr. Peters came through with just as many points as Gadberry.

Englemann, Everett Q., starred for the losers. Thirteen points was his total and some of the shots were long and heart-breaking. Grafft, a center was second with eleven points all of them, that is with one or two exceptions, shot from a distance.

The Malik defense, due to the work of its guards, was working perfectly. When a Banker shot he did from a distance for the Malik guards hemmed in the forwards.

The line-ups: LA MOINES — Daley, f. 11; O'Brien, f. 9; Morrison, c. 3; Moore, c. 3; Schrader, g. 4; Panning, g. 5; McAllister, g. 2; Theiste, f. 4; Bowman, f. 2; J. Baldwin, c. 11; Wilson, g. 6; C. Baldwin, g. 13; Gray, g. 2. BEN MALIKS — Bertoni, f. 7; Peters, f. 21; Hutton, f. 6; Hooks, f. 4; Gadberry, c. 21; Vargas, g. 2; McLaughlin, g. 3; Pasch, g. 2; Engleman, f. 13; Marcus, f. 3; MacDonald, f. 4; Grafft, c. 11; Duncan, g. 4; Tandy, g. 2; McLaughlin, g. 2.

GOLDEN BEARS TO MEET FIVE STRONG TEAMS

PORTLAND, Dec. 8.—Schedules calling for the best balanced Pacific Coast Conference race in many seasons were completed by managers of the several member universities in a meeting here today when California emerged from the "quadrangle" with five games listed against strong conference opponents, U. S. C. with a like number, and Stanford with six. Unexpected in the confab of the schedule makers was the inclusion of the strong University of Idaho team on both Stanford and Southern California programs, a factor which practically assures that there will be no three eleven unbeatens in the conference race, as was the case in the competition of the year just closed.

Long schedules predominated. Only one team, the baby conference member, University of California at Los Angeles, listed as few as four games in the big circuit. All others scheduled at least five, Stanford, Washington and Oregon took six, and the Washington State College seven.

Bears and Cards, as is their custom, switched their dates with Washington, California taking the Husky game in the north two weeks before the Big Game, while Stanford meets the same team at Palo Alto one week before the Big Game.

Bears and Cards also switched the program with U. S. C., the California gridders agreeing first to meet the Trojans next season, October 20, at Los Angeles, the fourth game of the schedule. Stanford and U. S. C. will not battle until November 3. This moving of the Trojan battles to later season dates was generally advocated by the great body of grid fans following the earlier season Stanford-Southern California and California-Southern California tilts of 1927.

WHO COMES THERE?—

Miller Huggins has had designs on some of those highly efficient heavers, at present in the employ of the Chicago White Sox for some reason past as well as several other players on the team. Last winter he tried to negotiate a wholesale trade that would have brought several of those White Sox players to New York, but when the dickering was concluded, it involved only Aaron Ward on the Yankee side and Johnny Grabowski and Ray Morehart on the Chicago side.

That deal, incidentally, was one of the most satisfactory ones made on either side. Ward worked wonders for the Six infielders, stringing Yankee backstop, while Morehart is an able infielder himself. Hug said several times last season that he thought it was the best deal he had ever made while managing the Yanks, and didn't change his mind after the season had ended.

Still, Hug has more desires in the general direction of the White Sox, and it seems likely that a Yankee-Chicago deal of some sort will be effected this winter. During the summer, trade talk between the two teams was constantly in the air, though nothing but indignant denials on both sides ever came of it. Ray Schalk, the high-spirited little manager of the Sox, who will probably continue at that post for another year anyway, was particularly indignant right after one of the rumors had Bib Falk, Willie Kamm and Ted Lyons involved with Myles Thomas, Bob Meusel and some Yankee reserve material.

"We are very proud of the players on our team," said the Little Cracker, reveling in one of his peevish moods, "just as proud of them as New York is of Babe Ruth and its other stars. We don't want them to leave Chicago any more than New Yorkers would want to see their favorites go to another club. There's nothing to those rumors."

All of which is just what Schalk felt, deeply and sincerely. He probably feels the same way right now, but Schalk, unfortunately, hasn't as much to say about his own team as many other major league managers. It is generally known that most of the direction of the White Sox destinies emanates from the White Sox office, where Harry Grabner, secretary of the club, and Charley Comiskey put their heads together.

Grabner wants another pennant winning club for the American League in Chicago. The Cubs, raising Cain generally under the spirited leadership of Joe McCarthy, are pulling most of the patronage over to their North Side park, and something as they say at the National League of Women Voters, has to be done about it. Grabner, accordingly, is trying to do it regardless of what pride may be felt in their high-powered athletes.

Both Grabner and Miller Huggins will be present at the minor league meeting which opens today in Dallas, and it's a cliché that these two half pinks will get together for a long talk. Whether they do any business or not remains to be seen, but that they'll be in there trying is certain. Schalk will be along at the meeting too, but Grabner will handle the burden of bartering.

Repeal Of Bills Banning Fight Films Asked

WASHINGTON, Dec. 8.—Repeal of the federal law prohibiting interstate transportation of prize-fight films was provided in a bill Representative Emanuel Celler (D) of New York, filed in the House.

"When Dempsey fought Tunney in Soldiers' Field, Chicago, 19 governor, 20 United States senators and dozens of congressmen sat at the ringside," said Celler, continuing:

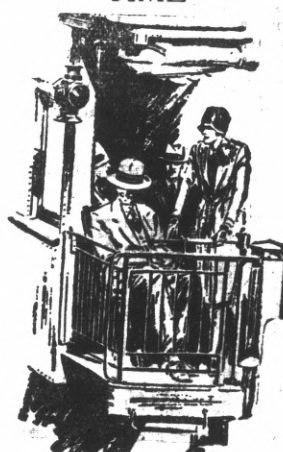

"The mass of people over the country desired to see the fight also, but were denied the privilege. Fight films may not be transported for exhibition purposes."

"Yet vivid descriptions of the fight were permitted over the radio. Newspapers carried lurid tales of the encounter. But to see with the eye is taboo."

"Recent decisions of the federal courts have shown the preposterousness of the statute. The courts have held the film may be shown, but may not be transported. Yet the films can not be shown unless they are transported across the state borders."

A GIFT

$1,000.00 CHRISTMAS PRESENT

For Some One

The Whole Family will enjoy the Comfort, Happiness and Prosperity that this desirable present will bring to you all for years and years to come.

DO YOU WANT IT?

Of course you do, so will any others.

"First Come - First Served"

HERE IS THE STORY

Mr. decided to build a home in Mira Vista, and selected plans for a five room house and garage that contained everything one could desire in a convenient, modern up-to-date home.

He selected a beautiful corner lot 55x80 that is "just right" for his "ideal home" with a view that would always be pleasing. Well, he built and built, added something here and something there; the best was none too good for "his home." Unfortunately he did not "stop to count the cost" for when the house was finally finished he found that he had gone far beyond his means; he was unable to "pay the bills." The creditors were compelled to take the property over and we have been instructed to sell it for the amount of their interest.

The total selling price is, $5250.00
Less Christmas present 1000.00

Net selling price $4250.00
Payable $500 or so cash, then about $10 per month which is what it would rent for; so the first payment is about all it will cost—lot, house and all.

FIRST FINE IN $60, 000 SUIT ORDINANCE ON AGAINST SPAN TRUCK WEIGHTS FIRM SETTLED

MARTINEZ, Dec. 8.—First fine to be imposed for violation of Contra Costa's new truck weight ordinance limiting the weight of vehicles using the Tunnel and San Pablo canyon highways to 16,000 pounds was registered today when Justice of the Peace George Duncan of Walnut Creek assessed Joe Avello, driver for the National Ice Cream Company, $25 for operating a truck weighing 18,680 pounds on the Tunnel highway.

Another driver, charged with the same offense, is to appear before Judge Duncan tomorrow. He is M. B. Gray, employee of an Oakland transfer firm, who is charged with operating a truck weighing 23,700 pounds on the San Pablo canyon highway.

The county ordinance, which is to be rigidly enforced by officers who have been assigned to a 24-hour schedule daily, cuts 5,000 pounds from the weight limit allowed by state law.

Truck operators who appealed to the Highway Commission and were defeated had planned a test case but it was reported to officials here today that the proposal had been abandoned by the firm contemplating it.

A third truck operator, a driver for the Bay City Lumber Company, was cited yesterday for having an overload of 1700 pounds on his vehicle on the Franklin canyon highway. He is to appear before Judge Frank Glass next week.

Traffic Officers Ed Keefe, R. R. Cheek and Forrest Lea cited the drivers of the three vehicles.

MARTINEZ, Dec. 8.—Settlement for $1000 plus costs, which approximate 1250, today terminated a $60,000 suit brought against American Toll Bridge company by John W. Stemmiel and wife of Crockett, for damages they claim was done to their property through construction of a retaining wall as part of a highway the National Ice Cream Company, approach to the Carquinez Straits bridge.

The settlement came after two days of trial before a jury in the court of Superior Judge A. B. McGeorge.

The suit had named the California Highway Commission and Oakland transfer firm, road contractor, but they were eliminated as defendants without prejudice, this permitting the Stemmiels to file another action against them. Attorneys said that a settlement with the commission and the contractors was being discussed.

The Stemmiels claim that the retaining wall encroached upon their property, destroyed a section of their garden, spoiled the view from their home and prevented ingress and egress to their garage.

Xmas Fables For Young And Old

way he's a good excuse for musical shows. No, I know you don't understand that—don't bother Grandpa any more.

Well, this tired business man just couldn't seem to get time to buy his Christmas presents. Every time he went down Macdonald avenue and saw the people bustling around the stores he swore he would buy his kiddies and wife their presents the next day. Yes, Santa Claus is supposed to attend to that, Jeanette, but he's pretty busy, and—don't bother me, let me tell the story.

It got around to the afternoon of December 24, and this poor fellow hadn't bought any presents at all.

"By George!" he exclaimed, "I'll close up shop and rush out and get those gifts."

And what do you suppose he saw when he went out?

No! He didn't see a pink elephant, Jackie? Why do you pester your poor old Grandfather? He saw Macdonald avenue just FILLED with people and he couldn't even get near a store, much less inside of one.

But he loved his family a whole lot, and he jumped right into the mob and started to battle toward the toy department in a store down town. Some one hit him with an umbrella—it was raining, I forgot to say—and another cracked him in the ribs with an elbow—stop laughing, Oswald, you bad boy. And a great big woman swung around on him and jammed his hat down over his eyes and when he couldn't see, he thought the man with the umbrella had poked his eyes out and he went wildly insane. That's what I said, Jackie.

So they called an ambulance and hustled him to a hospital, but it was too late then, for he thought he was the King of Siam, and he was pretty much gone for good.

Now rush off to bed, children, and let Grandpa finish reading the Record-Herald advertisements. And don't forget to get that mousetrap I need for Christmas. And if you don't want to go crazy like this man I was telling you about, don't wait until December 24.

Scandal Raised In Garbage Row

Mayer was the largest hog raiser in this vicinity.

I began to hear rumors about a month ago that a considerable sum of money had been paid to secure this wet garbage contract. This was something which vitally interested me, as it might seem to be an attack on my integrity.

Inasmuch as I had voted for this contract, being unaware of any thing irregular, I immediately started an investigation.

"FORCED TO PAY"
During my investigation Mr. Peter Bandoni of the Bay Shore Stock Raising Company told me that he was forced to pay Mr. E. P. Mayer of the Contra Costa Hog company the sum of $6,500 in order that he might participate in the collection of wet garbage in Oakland.

Mr. Oreste Santucci of the Russell City Hog Company told me that he also was approached in this matter and a demand made for a similar sum from him, which, on advice of his attorneys, he refused to pay, and thereby was denied the privilege of participating in the wet garbage collections in Oakland.

City Attorney Preston Higgins has been asked by Commissioner Young to conduct the hearing this morning which will start shortly after 11 o'clock. The witnesses will be subjected to questioning in any way that members of the council may suggest.

The men to be called are E. P. Mayer, head of the Contra Costa Hog Company, and his associates, William Mayer, his brother, and his son, Arthur Mayer; Oreste Santucci and John Tognotti of the Russell City Hog Company; M. Massaglia of the Bay City Live Stock Company; Peter Bandoni and Attilio Bandoni of the Bay Short Stock Raising Company, and Harold Booth of the Western Hog Company.

The Mayers will be asked to explain the statements attributed to them that they paid $20,000 at the city hall for the garbage franchise. The other hog company representatives who say they were approached by Mayer seeking contributions to the fund will be invited to repeat their statements under oath before the council.

Episcopalians On Tour Of County Dioceses

The pilgrimage from San Francisco of Episcopalians to visit missions in Contra Costa county came over at 9 o'clock and were met at the Southern Pacific ferry by the Reverend Milton R. Terry and the Rev. H. R. Oberholzer of St. Edmund's church. The party first visited Trinity church of Point Richmond and expressed themselves as being delighted with the appearance of the Trinity diocese. From there they went to St. Edmund's at Tomah and Barrett, after which they journeyed to the remaining Episcopal missions in Contra Costa county.

Among those in the party were: Dr. and Mrs. Noel Porter, Mrs. Montague, Mrs. Holmes, the president of the House of Church Women, and Mrs. Dr. Sherman, president of the auxiliary.

G. A. R. Auxiliary Fleets Officers For New Term
At a meeting of the Richmond auxiliary to the G. A. R. held at Memorial hall, officers were elected for the ensuing term. Those elected were: Josephine Neville, president; Grace Brown, senior vice-president; Anna Galvin, junior vice-president; Emma Rowe, treasurer; Anna Jarvis, chaplain; Joella Bonham, patriotic instructor. The president will appoint the other officers before installation.

NOTED PIANIST TO APPEAR AT RECITAL TONITE

Evelyn Phelan, American pianist who will be heard in the concert given for the benefit of the organ fund of the First Baptist Church is rapidly gaining an enviable position among our younger musicians. Her early training was received under such well-known California teachers as George McManus and Albert Elkus. She later studied under Paolo Gallico, of New York and Walter Goldie of New York and the celebrated Russian master, Joseph Lhevinne. Miss Phelan's program will contain numbers by Chopin, Liszt, Brahms, Leschetitzky, Schubert and Saint-Saens, while selected from the best music of these composers they will be of a type that will appeal both to students of music and to those who like pure entertainment.

On the program with Miss Phelan will be Juanita Tennyson who is well known as a concert soprano and has made many friends through her radio work. Sherman Clay & Co., of Oakland, are furnishing the entire performance for the First Baptist church and all proceeds from the sale of tickets are to be applied by the church toward the purchase of their new Sherman, Clay & Co. pipe-organ. The concert will be given in Lincoln school auditorium this evening, December 9. Tickets may be obtained from members of the church and at Martin's Grill.

Deputy Clerk Hurt In Auto Accident
Deputy City Clerk Lou's Brougham of 2334 Gaylor avenue sustained slight injuries in an automobile accident at Tenth street and Chanslor avenue yesterday morning.

Cars driven by him and John LaTorraca, local automobile racer, collided at the intersection. Both drivers narrowly escaped serious injuries.

Brougham's car overturned twice after being struck on the side and two wheels were crushed, according to the police report. Brougham escaped with bruises on the head and about the body. While not of a serious nature, they were severe enough to confine him to his home yesterday. LaTorraca was uninjured.

Club Mendelssohn Presents Interesting Music Program

Club Mendelssohn enjoyed an interesting meeting yesterday at the beautiful new home of Mrs. Raymond Clark, 5467 Barrett avenue. Mrs. Clark and Mrs. James C. Eaton were joint hostesses to the club.

At a business meeting which preceded an unusually attractive program the members discussed details of an opera to be given early in spring. Mrs. John Merrell, state president of music was a visitor and together with the guest artists on the program was presented with a floral bouquet.

The members received Christmas cards on which the program was inscribed. At the close of the afternoon, delicious refreshments were served by the hostesses.

The following program was presented:
1. Life and music of Felix Mendelssohn (1809-1847)
2. Mrs. Charles Lipp
3. "Lift up Thine Eyes" (from Elijah) Mendelssohn
4. Adolphus Trio
5. Mrs. Wallace Meracle
6. Mrs. Charles Weeks
